Out of Town Travel

Bob and Norma Hohn (bnhohn@sunflower.com, 842-8804) and Fred and Carolyn Madaus (fmadaus@ku.edu, 841-4939)

November 1—Trip to Kansas City. We will visit the Steamboat Arabia. The museum has been updated recently, and is continually restoring treasures recovered from the boat, so even if you have been there before, it may be worthwhile to go again. Lunch will be at Lydia's. Lydia has a much-viewed national TV cooking show. The cuisine is Italian, and is highly rated. We will also tour the WW I Museum. It has also been renovated recently and has new exhibits, so it is worth a new look.

The specific itinerary has yet to be scheduled, but our trip should not require an early departure time, and we should be back home in mid PM.

The price of the trip will depend on how many are going, but will include the bus fare, tip for the driver and admissions to the two museums. Lunch will be on your own.

Singing for Fun

Roberta Spires (rspires@ku.edu, 842-6820)

There will be no Singing for Fun this month.
